

	Key Vocabulary	Misconceptions	Key Text/Visual Prompts
	Writer Illustrator Botany - study of plants Mycology - study of fungi Published - prepare and issue a book for sale Victorian - within the period of time that Queen Victoria ruled England. Conservation - to protect or prevent wasteful use of a resource. 	It was easy to be a female writer in early 19th century. Everyone went to school in Victorian times.	Books of Beatrix Potter Drawings of Beatrix Potter
	History - timeline	The life of Beatrix Potter
Non Negotiable 	BP was born in 1866 in London BP lived in the Victorian times - when Queen Victoria was the queen of England. 1882 - first holiday to Lake District 1887 - had pneumonia 1890- sold her first illustrations 1901 - 1902 The Tale of Peter Rabbit was published 1913 - Married William Heelis 1943 - Died.	She is famous for writing books - 23 children's books She was also an illustrator and painter. BP had a good education for the Victorian times. Many children did not go to school in Victorian times. BP kept pets which inspired her drawings. BP made a lot of money from her books and so bought Hill Top Farm in the Lake District.
Greater Depth	Queen Victoria ruled from 1837 - 1901 Born on 28th July in Kensington, London. 	BP kept a diary full of drawings Her favourite book was Alice in Wonderland. She brought 14 farms altogether and left them to the National Trust. The National Trust is a charity that protects the countryside and buildings in the United Kingdom. She studied botany and mycology. Four of her books are sold every minute in the world.

