

Who shares the world with me?

Key Vocabulary	Visual Prompts	Misconceptions	Key Text
habitat - natural home of an animal. characteristics - a feature or quality of an animal mammal - a warm blooded vertebrate. Invertebrate - animal without a backbone Vertebrates - an animal with a backbone backbone/spine - the bone from the skull to the pelvis wild - animal living in natural state pet - a domesticated animal warm-blooded - an animal who maintains a temperature above their surroundings. cold-blooded - an animal whose temperature varies with the environment.	Photographs of key animals - one of each, labelled with characteristics. Zoo role play   	All animals have the same structure. There is more land than water.	Dear Zoo by Rod Campbell Tanka tanka skunk by Steve Webb Handa's Surprise by Eileen Browne One Day on our Blue Planet by Ella Bailey

Science		Fun Facts
Non Negotiable	Vertebrates are animals with backbones (spines) Invertebrates are animals without backbones. There are 5 groups of vertebrates - mammals, fish, birds, reptiles, amphibians. Mammals do not lay eggs. Habitats can be very large, like an ocean or small, like under a log.	The Pacific ocean is the largest ocean. Ocean covers 70% of the world. Asia is the largest continent. Africa has the greatest number of countries. There 3,500 different species of woodlice in the world. More people have dogs than cats in the UK.
Greater Depth	Micro-habitats are very small habitats where min beats might live. Mammals and birds are warm blooded. Fish, insects and amphibians are cold blooded.

