WORLD BOOK DAY - next Thursday

On World Book Day, we are asking all children to come to school or join us online 'in disguise' as our older children will be joining in with some Zoom workshops with Andy Cope, the author of the Spy Dog series and then participating in a writing challenge.

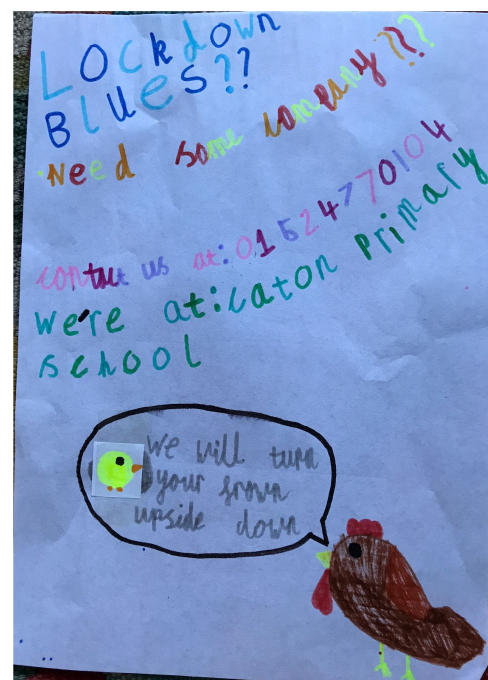

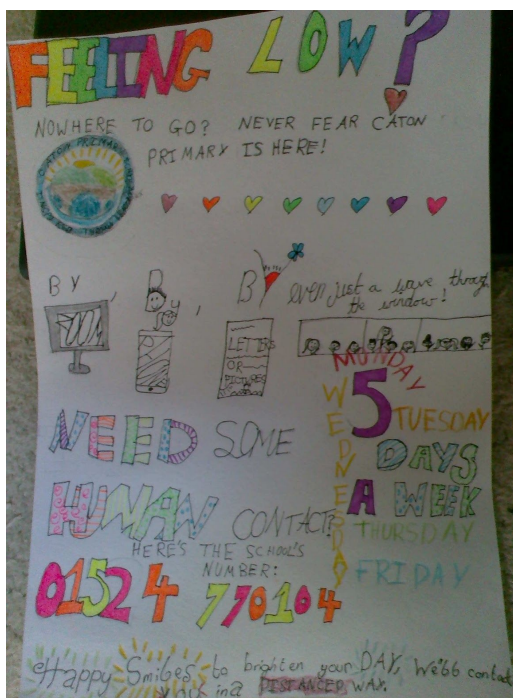

Whether or not the children are partaking in the workshop, we have lots of fun planned for all.

'REACH OUT' INITIATIVE

Well done to our children for producing some super posters for our 'Reach Out' initiative.

Here are some fabulous ones produced by Anwen, Evie and Georgie. The posters will go up in the community next week and we hope to be able to connect with local residents and bring some happiness and friendship to them.
