Online safety

The children have all been learning lots about online safety over the last couple of weeks. We are looking forward to sharing this learning in our celebration assembly today. Watch out for our class fact sheets which the children will be publishing shortly to support adults in helping children to stay safe online.

European day of languages

We had a wonderful day on Tuesday, marking the European Day of Languages. We are so lucky to have eleven children in school whose first language is not English. We celebrated this and discussed why it's a great thing to know other languages. We learnt some new languages (Italian, Ukrainian, Polish and Welsh), we learnt about other cultures and then we shared all our learning in a celebration assembly. Special thanks to Mrs Dobras for reading a story in Polish to Reception class and to Mrs G for teaching the Reception children to sing 'Head, shoulders, knees and toes' in Polish - it was a real highlight! Bravo! Dobrze zrobiony! молодець! много добре! Bom trabalho! Bien hecho! 做得好

Our international bake off competition was just fantastic and raised £100 for the Libya floods appeal. Congratulations to the winners Mackenna and Loki and huge thanks to all parents for their generous donations of cakes and money.

Caton Explorers Quest

Congratulations from the PTA to our winning team for the Caton Explorer's Quest..... Team Flowers! Well done guys! Cornelius Archibald Tongue Of Newt, aka The Wizard of Caton is pleased with his new apprentices 🧙‍♂️

Year 6 arrive back on British soil

The final part of Year 6's adventure was just as spectacular as the start. On Friday last week, they put their language skills to the test with an exciting 'market mission' to buy ingredients to make their own lunch. Working in teams, they shopped to a budget and then they went back to the hotel to make a lovely buffet lunch. There are definitely some budding Masterchefs in our midst! In the afternoon, they visited La Coupole World War II bunker museum and then finished off the day with snail tasting and a disco.
